WHEREVER YOU NEED US – WORLDWIDE

Products, spare parts and services from one source

Thanks to our global network of service centres and mobile vans, we are always close by and can respond quickly. We advise you individually and offer you customised, individual solutions as well as long-term service agreements.

SMART IN SENSING

BECAUSE MEASUREMENT
TECHNOLOGY CAN DO MORE

New standards for safety, sustainability and efficiency

High system availability, minimum downtime and maximum operational safety are essential for companies. The right service makes all the difference.

As the market leader in measurement technology, WIKA understands the full spectrum of requirements for integration and operation across the entire life cycle. That is why WIKA offers you the right support at all times through an excellent range of services and a global network.

From installation and commissioning to maintenance and repair, calibration or analysis and consulting – you can rely on rapid response times, outstanding service quality and individual solutions.

At WIKA, today's expectations are tomorrow's standards. That is why WIKA Services is continuously thinking ahead to set new standards every day: forward-looking, providing added value and in partnership – for maximum performance.
